From Tuesday September 4, to Saturday September 8, 1750.

Lisbon, Auguſt 16.

GREAT Preparations are making for the Coronation of his Majeſty, which will be performed with the utmoſt Magnificence before the End of next Month. On Tueſday laſt we were greatly alarmed by a Fire breaking out in one of the Wings of the Royal Hoſpital, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that in a ſhort Time it reduced to Aſhes that magnificent Building, together with the Church adjoining to it, notwithſtanding all poſſible Means were uſed to prevent it. The Hoſpital was full of Sick People, and it was with the greateſt Difficulty that moſt of them were ſaved, ſome few, who could give themſelves no Aſſiſtance, having periſhed in the Flames.

Naples, Auguſt 18. A few Days ago anchored at this Port, ſeveral Engliſh, Dutch, and French Ships, from their reſpective Ports, with divers Goods for the Fair of Salerno; but finding that, contrary to Expectation, and the uſual Practice, this Government inſiſted upon Viſiting; many of them, eſpecially the Engliſh, not being willing to ſubmit to ſuch Irregularity, departed immediately for Leghorn. Laſt Week we received the diſagreeable News from Apuglia, that on the 26th paſt, the City of Lucera, and its neighbouring Villages of Troia and Biciari, were greatly damaged by a moſt violent Hurricane, accompanied with terrible Thunder and Lightening, by which divers Houſes were demoliſhed, and many Cattle buried under the Ruins.

Rome, Aug. 25. On the 11th Inſtant Cardinal Mellini had a long private Audience of the Pope, in Conſequence of the Commiſſions he lately received by a Courier from the Court of Vienna, relating to the Affair of Aquileja; and on the 12th he diſpatched the ſaid Courier back to Vienna. The Pope has granted an Indulto in Favour of the King of Sardinia, to nominate, for the future, the Biſhops and Archbiſhops in his Dominions, on Condition of his paying the Pope a yearly Penſion of 4000 Crowns.

Plaiſance, Aug. 25. The Letters by this Day's Poſt from Genoa ſay, that one of the Galliots of that Republick had made herſelf Maſter of one of the Corſairs of Barbary, with 25 Hands on board, at the Head of the Iſland of Corſica.

Florence, Aug. 28. On the 18th Inſtant ſailed from the Port of Leghorn, the Emperor's Ships of War, the Eagle, Heron, and Lyon, commanded by Commodore Acton, who, tho' he was not to open his Inſtructions till he was at Sea, it is ſaid he is bound firſt to Trieſte, then to Conſtantinople, and afterwards to the Coaſt of Barbary.

Leghorn, Aug. 28. The ten Turkiſh Slaves, who arrived here a few Days ago in a French Bark from Toulon, having got the better of the Under Officer and his Servant, who had the Care of them, found Means to eſcape as they were returning to that Port from ſome Work which they had been employed in. Their Deſign was to ſteer directly for the Coaſt of Barbary; but as they had no Proviſions of any Kind, and were ſix Days in their Paſſage, they were obliged to put into this Port, being almoſt ſtarved. The French Miniſter at Florence, and the French Conſul at this Place, on Notice of their Arrival, made Inſtances to the Government for their being ſecured; which occaſioned an extraordinary Council to be held; and though no Anſwer has as yet been given to the French Miniſter, Orders were immediately given for the Delivering up of the Frenchman and his Servant to the French Conſul here, and to confine the Slaves in the Fortreſs until the Emperor ſhall ſend the Regency Orders about them. The Tripoline Miniſter happening to be here at the ſame Time, waiting for a Ship to return Home, has likewiſe demanded the Reſtitution of thoſe Slaves, agreeable to the Treaties between the Emperor and the Regencies of Barbary; but the Government perſiſts in their Reſolution to wait the Emperor's Orders about them.

Stockholm, Aug. 30. The King enjoys at preſent a better State of Health than he has done for ſome Time paſt, and often takes the Diverſion of Shooting of Pheaſants in the Park at Carlberg. His Majeſty has appointed M. Lindfelt to be a Captain in the Regiment of Guards; and the Baron Duval is appointed Quarter Maſter in the ſame Regiment.

Vienna,

[Price Two-pence.]

Vienna, Sept. 5. We learn by our laſt Advices from Bohemia, that his Imperial Majeſty, after having taken the Diverſion of Hunting for ſome Days in the Neighbourhood of Brandeis, was ſet out from thence for Clumets, where he propoſed alſo ſpending ſome Days. The Equipage of Count Harrach, Governor of Milan, arrived here on Tueſday laſt; and the Count himſelf is daily expected.

Berlin, Sept. 8. By Letters from Sileſia we are informed, that his Pruſſian Majeſty arrived on Friday laſt at Glogau, and ſet out the next Morning for Breſlau, where it was expected he would arrive as that Night. The ſame Letters ſay, that the Regiments his Majeſty propoſed to review there were marching into the Camp aſſigned them, the Right Wing of which reached to the Village of Wilſchuz, and the Left to the Town of Hunsfelt, which laſt Place was the Head Quarters. The Troops aſſembling in this Camp are, the Regiments of Baddenbroek and Rochau, Cuiraſſiers; that of Schwerin, Dragoons; the Regiments of Foot of Leſtewitz, Schulz, Brandes, and Kreitzen; the Battallions of Grenadiers of Izemblitz, Wanghenheim, and Marwitz; and the Huſſars of Natzmer and Wartemberg.

Nurembourg, Sept. 8. The Prince of Tour Taxis, the Emperor's Principal Commiſſary to the Dyet of the Empire, arrived here on the 6th Inſtant in the Evening; he was ſaluted at his Entrance into this City by a Diſcharge of 12 Pieces of Cannon, and ſoon after complimented by two Deputies from the Magiſtrates; and Yeſterday Morning his Highneſs left this Place, with a Retinue of about 40 Perſons, on his Way to Ratisbon, where it is expected he will arrive this Evening.

Bruſſels, Sept. 10. The Deputies, who arrived here a few Days ago from Namur, had Yeſterday Morning a particular Audience of Prince Charles of Lorrain, and preſented to his Highneſs the Free Gift of the States of their Province.

Duſſeldorp, Sept. 10. On Sunday laſt publick Prayers were put up in all the Churches of the Dutchies of Bergues and Juliers, to pray the Almighty to put a Stop to the Diſtemper which rages there very much amongſt the Horned Cattle, and has lately deſtroyed great Numbers of them. They write from Cologne, that on Saturday Night laſt a Fire broke out in the Village of Brockhauſen, a little Diſtance from thence, which burnt down ſix large Farmhouſes, with all the Barns and Stables belonging to them; and that the next Morning the Hereditary Prince of Anſpach paſſed through that City, going from Loo to his Father's Court.

Hague, Sept. 15. The Baron vander Duyn, Preſident of the College of Nobles of this Province, is ſet out for Loo, in order to pay a Viſit to their Serene Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange. This Week ſeveral Officers, both Civil and Military, who have been preferred by the Prince of Orange, or by the States General, through his Serene Highneſs's Recommendation, have taken the Oaths at the Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes, and at the Council of State, in order to qualify themſelves for their different Employments; amongſt whom was M. Graveſande in Quality of Receiver-General of Boiſle Duc, and M. Keyſer, in Quality of Preſident of the Council of Flanders.

LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS. Accurately Translated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Piety, Wisdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Justice, Temperance, Love, Friendship, Humanity, &c. &c. are described in all their Branches; the Obligations of them shown to consist in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them strongly enforc'd. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, scarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a strict Discharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thousand other Decorums, besides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to instill the Principles of all social Virtues into tender Minds.
